V. COUNT ONE
PREFERENCE – 11 U.S.C. § 547

16. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

17. As to the Defendant North American, and for each of the 90-Day Transfers to said Defendant, the 90-Day Transfers were transfers of property of the Debtor that made the transfer.

18. As to the Defendant North American, and for each of the 90-Day Transfers to said Defendant, the 90-Day Transfers were made to or for the benefit of the creditor of the Debtor that made the transfer.

19. As to the Defendant North American, and for each of the 90-Day Transfers to said Defendant, the 90-Day Transfers were made by the Debtor that made the transfer for or on account of an antecedent debt owed by the Debtor that made the transfer to the creditor before the 90-Day Transfers were made.

20. As to the Defendant North American, and for each of the 90-Day Transfers to said Defendant, the 90-Day Transfers were made on or within ninety (90) days before the Debtor filed bankruptcy or between ninety days and one year before the date of the filing of the Petition if such creditor at the time of such transfer was an insider.

21. As to the Defendant North American, and for each of the 90-Day Transfers to said Defendant, at the time the 90-Day Transfers were made, Debtor that made the transfer was insolvent.

22. As to the Defendant North American, and for each of the 90-Day Transfers to said Defendant, the 90-Day Transfers enabled the Defendant to receive more than it would have received under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code if the payment had not been made, and if the Defendant had received payment as provided under the Bankruptcy Code.

23. By reason of the foregoing, the Trustee sues to avoid all 90-Day Transfers to the Defendant pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 547 and 550.

24. Defendants Lucent Health Solutions and Lucent Health Care Management are liable as successors in interest to Defendant North American.

VI. COUNT TWO FRAUDULENT TRANSFER—11 U.S.C. § 548

25. Plaintiff reincorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 2 of the Complaint.

26. Alternatively, the transfers that were made or the obligations incurred by the Debtor that made such transfers—including but not limited to the 90-Day Transfers plus all other transfers made or obligations incurred within two years of the date of the petition (“Two-Year Transfers”)—were made or incurred with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud entities to which the Debtor that made such transfer was or became, on or after the date that Two-Year Transfers were made or such obligations incurred, indebted.

27. Alternatively, the Debtor that made the transfers received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for such Two-Year Transfers made or such obligations incurred; and

(a) the Debtor that made such Two-Year Transfers was insolvent on the date that such Two-Year Transfers were made, or such obligations incurred, or became insolvent as a result of such Two-Year Transfers or obligations,

(b) the Debtor that made such Two-Year Transfers was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction, for which any property remaining with the Debtor that made such Two-Year Transfer was an unreasonably small capital, or

(c) such Debtor intended to incur, or believed that such Debtor would incur, debts that would be beyond that Debtor's ability to pay as such debts matured.

28. By reason of the foregoing, the Trustee sues to avoid all Two-Year Transfers made to Defendant North American Administrators or obligations incurred, and to recover the Two-Year Transfers or the value thereof from the Defendants pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 548 and 550.

29. Defendants Lucent Health Solutions and Lucent Health Care Management are liable as successors in interest to Defendant North American.

V. COUNT THREE – FRAUDULENT TRANSFERS – 11 U.S.C. § 544

30. Plaintiff reincorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 29 of the Complaint.

31. Alternatively, pursuant to Texas Business and Commerce Code 24.001 et seq. made applicable by 11 U.S.C. § 544(b)(1), the transfers that were made or the obligations incurred by the Debtor that made such transfers—including but not limited to the 90-Day Transfers plus all other transfers made or obligations incurred within four years of the date of the petition (“Four-

Year Transfers”)—were made or incurred with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud entities to which the Debtor that made such transfer was or became, on or after the date that Four-Year Transfers were made or such obligations incurred, indebted.

32. Alternatively, the Debtor that made such Four-Year Transfers received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for such Four-Year Transfers made or such obligations incurred; and

- (a) the Debtor was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction, for which the remaining assets of the Debtor were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction, or
- (b) the Debtor intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that the Debtor would incur, debts that would be beyond the Debtor’s ability to pay as such debts became due.

36. Alternatively, for each Four-Year Transfer made or obligation incurred by the Debtor, the Debtor made the Four-Year Transfers or incurred the obligation

- (a) without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Four-Year Transfers or obligation, and the Debtor was insolvent at that time or the Debtor became insolvent as a result of the Four-Year Transfers or obligation; or
- (b) to an insider for an antecedent debt at a time when the Debtor was insolvent, and the insider had reasonable cause to believe that the Debtor was insolvent.

37. By reason of the foregoing, the Trustee sues to avoid all the Four-Year Transfers made to the Defendants or obligations incurred, and to recover the Four-Year Transfers or the value thereof from the Defendants pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 544 and 550 plus his attorneys’ fees thereto.

38. Defendants Lucent Health Solutions and Lucent Health Care Management are liable as successors in interest to Defendant North American.

VI. COUNT FOUR

39. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

40. The 90-Day Transfers, the Two-Year Transfers, and the Four-Year Transfers together are referred to as the “Transfers.”

41. Defendant North American was the initial transferee of the Transfers or the immediate or mediate transferee of such initial transferee or the person for whose benefit the Transfers were made. Defendants Lucent Health Solutions and Lucent Health Care Management are liable as successors in interest to Defendant North American.

42. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants the Transfers pursuant to Section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent they are avoided pursuant to Section 544, 547, and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, plus interest thereon to the date of payment and the costs of this action.

VII. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Larry A. Levick, Litigation Trustee for the Unsecured Creditors’ Litigation Trust, respectfully prays that this Court:

(a) avoid the Transfers described in this Complaint pursuant to Sections 547, 548, and/or 544 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(b) direct Defendant North American Administrators, LP, or their successors in Lucent Health Solutions, LLC, and/or Lucent Health Care Management, LLC to return to Plaintiff the amount of the Transfers, plus interest from the date of demand at the maximum legal rate and to the fullest extent allowed by applicable law, together with the costs and expenses of this action including, without limitation, attorneys' fees;
